Ross is one of the principle owners of Daniel Lumber Company. He oversees all aspects of sales for Daniel Lumber and Daniel Kitchen & Bath. In addition to his management duties, Ross has been an outside salesman since 1993. He has worked on numerous residential and commercial projects in the area including Hilton Head, Palmetto Bluff, Belfair, Berkley Hall, Colleton River, Historic Savannah, The Landings, The Ford Plantation, Dutch Island and Hampton Island. Ross is a member of the National Kitchen and Bath Association and received his AKBD (Associate Kitchen and Bath Designer) certification in 2008.

Ross truly learned the business from the ground up and was fortunate to be taught the business from two generations of lumbermen; his grandfather Sid Daniel, his father, Sidney and his uncle, Jim Daniel. Ross has held numerous positions through out the years including truck driver, forklift operator, counter sales, purchasing and shipping.

Ross graduated from Benedictine Military School and received a B.A. from the University of Georgia. He served 10 years in the Georgia Air National Guard attaining the rank of Captain as a C-130 Navigator. He lives in Savannah with his wife Lisa, and their two children, Liz and Sid.
