Certified Shirestone Installer

JT Schroeder has been employed by Daniel Lumber since 1999. JT. is in charge of the Schulte Closet Shelving program. Not only does he sell the products, but he designs custom closets, orders all of the inventory, and installs or oversees the installation of all closet jobs installed by Daniel Lumber. J.T. is a certified Schulte closet shelving installer. In addition to these duties, he also is one of Daniel Lumber's outside salesman, and knows the products from his hands on experience.

J.T. was born and raised on Tybee Island, Georgia and received an associates degree in Business Management from Savannah Technical College. He and wife Rachel live in Savannah and are expecting their first child in September 2007. His can do attitude and desire to ensure that the customer is satisfied makes J.T. a valuable asset to the Daniel Lumber family.
